

WOMEN'S WORK IN THE OAXACAN HIGHLANDS

OAXACA, MEXICO

Arrive October 6th - Depart October 15th, 2021

EXPLORE

$1,995 (excluding airfare)

(includes $200 in donations to visited projects)

If $800 deposit is made by August 1st

$2,195 after August 1st

LEARN

Where will your heart take you?

See backside for more information or visit:

www.corazonjourneys.com

For more information call Debbie at (509)714-8928

Included: lodging, all in country transportation, guides, entrance fees, cooking class, all breakfasts, three lunches and three dinners, $200 donations to local programs.

Not Included: airfare, meals not included in the programing, activities during free time, travelers' insurance.

WOMEN'S WORK IN THE OAXACAN HIGHLANDS

OAXACA, MEXICO

Arrive October 6th - Depart October 15th, 2021

The state of Oaxaca in Southern Mexico is celebrated for its indigenous cultures. These include the Zapotecs and the Mixtec people who proudly preserve their traditional dance, arts, cooking, and festivals. We will meet with women activists and artists who are challenging the patriarchy, determining innovative ways to design and market their traditional arts, and build their communities through sustainable farming. There will be visit to museums, galleries, artists' studios and community festivals. We will stay in simple, but comfortable accommodations in Oaxaca City and the small town of Teotitlan. It will be a balance of exploring and learning.

Participants are required to follow all local Covid-19 protocols.

Covid-19 vaccinations recommended prior to travel

Oaxaca, Mexico Trip Highlights:

- Oaxaca city tour, including an overview of its history and culture, with stops at some of the city's art galleries and historical churches.
- Full-day workshop with the Vida Nueva weavers.
- Time to enjoy the nightly festivities and dancing at the Oaxaca Zolcolo (city square.)
- Visit to the ruins of Monte Alban.
- Daytrip to village of San Martin Tilcajete to visit the studios of Alejbrije artists.
- Day trip to CEDICAM (Centro Educativo Desarrollo Integral Campesinos Alta Mixteco) to learn about their women's greenhouse program, farm tour and overview of sustainable farming strategies.
- Cooking class with Chef Gerardo Aldeco Pinelo at La Cocina Oaxaqueña will feature an early morning market visit to select fresh food for the day's preparations and will include instructions on making Oaxacan's world famous moles.

Where will your heart take you?

To register, email debbieraecorazon@gmail.com or call (509)714-8928

www.corazonjourneys.com

About Your Journey Coordinators:

For 10 years Ginny Darvill has visited Oaxaca once or twice a year and has deep ties to the people and groups represent on this trip Her non-profit project Vida Nueva Rugs imports the products of this weaving cooperative to help support economic and social justice for indigenous women.

Debbie DuPey has over 20 years experience in the field of social justice. She lived in Guatemala for six years, where she developed Amigas de Corazon, a nonprofit organization supporting indigenous weavers and their children. She has volunteered in Nepal, Vietnam and Central America. She is the founder and director of Corazon Journeys.

Refund policy: Trip funds can be refunded up to 45 days prior to departure, minus the $800 deposit. Participants are required to purchase travel insurance to cover any disruptions in their travel plans.